

Community READ

A Good Time for the Truth: Race in Minnesota

edited by Sun Yung Shin

16 true stories.

A call to listen and learn.

Community Conversation

with contributing authors

THURSDAY | OCTOBER 12

6:30 - 8:00 PM Eisenhower Community Center

Sun Yung Shin 신 선 영 is an author, editor, professor, writer in residence at the Wisdom Ways Center for Spirituality, and a contributing editor at Aster(ix) and Society Editions.

David Lawrence Grant writes drama, fiction and memoir. He has written on racial bias in the justice system, and racial disparities in the health care system. He teaches screenwriting at Independent Filmmaker Project/Minnesota.

Rodrigo Sanchez-Chavarria is a writer and spoken word poet of Peruvian heritage involved with Palabristas, a Minnesota-based Latin poets collective. He is an MFA student at Hamline University.

Hopkins Race & Equity Initiative

Sponsored by the Hopkins Race & Equity Initiative (HREI.) Organized by the Hopkins School District, Friends of the Hopkins Library, Gethsemane Lutheran Church